

“If we can’t escape the past let’s at least relive the good bits”
Boris Johnson

CRYSTAL PALACE FESTIVAL

South London’s part of the June 2009 ‘Story Of London Festival’

- Sat 6th 12 – 5pm FESTIVAL OPENING ON THE SITE OF THE OLD CRYSTAL PALACE
(by Crystal Palace Parade SE19 near the bus station) Bring your own Victorian Picnic; Collectors’ Antique Fair; Victorian style children’s games; construction of the ‘Children’s Crystal Palace’ and introducing ‘The Crystal Palace Festival Pavilion Project.’
- 2 - 5pm VICTORIAN AFTERNOON: Upper Norwood Library, Westow Hill SE19
Professor Heard’s Magic Lantern Show; storytelling; Punch and Judy; historical talks; Victorian-style magician; Stalls and Period Entertainers
- 5pm ARTS FESTIVAL LAUNCH including art work by Audrey Hammond, Mike Conrad and Brian Dann
The Grain and Grape Pub, top of Anerley Hill (OPEN ALL WEEK)
- Sun 7th Anniversary of Paxton’s first visit to the Hyde Park Crystal Palace site 1850
- 3.00pm ‘JOSEPH AND HIS AMAZING CRYSTAL PALACE’ open air theatre
performed by CREEPS The Crystal Palace Re-Enactment Society
at the Paxton Statue, Crystal Palace Park (FREE)
- 7.30pm FESTIVAL MUSIC Jazz at The Grape and Grain Pub, top of Anerley Hill
CRYSTAL PALACE THEMED QUIZ at The Royal Albert Pub, Westow Hill SE19
- Mon 8th Anniversary of Paxton’s death at Rockhills, Crystal Palace Park, 1865
- 7pm GHOST WALK in search of the spirit of Joseph Paxton (FREE)
start: Crystal Palace Railway Station (near the Paxton Arms Hotel) finish: The Grain and Grape Pub, top of Anerley Hill
- Tue 9th 7pm LOCAL HISTORICAL WALK with the Crystal Palace Community Association:
£5, limited places, call: 0208 670 4395 or email: cpcpa@onetel.com
Start: the smaller transmitter – far end of Church Road. Finish: Dulwich Wood House Pub
- Wed 10th Anniversary of the opening of our South London Crystal Palace 1854
- 10am HYDE PARK TO CRYSTAL PALACE PARK 1854 JOURNEY RE-ENACTMENT
performed by CREEPS The Crystal Palace Re-Enactment Society.
Start: Crystal Palace Railway Station
- 7.30pm FESTIVAL MUSIC CRYSTAL PALACE BAND open rehearsal in CP Park, near the Crystal Palace Museum
- 8.30pm FESTIVAL POETRY The Grape and Grain Pub
- Thurs 11th Anniversary of Paxton’s first sketch of Crystal Palace – the blotting paper ‘Derby Doodle’ 1850
- 9.30am VICTORIAN WAGGLE AND HUM
& 11am young children’s session at Upper Norwood Library
- 7pm DARWIN SYMPOSIUM at Upper Norwood Library with speakers from Spurgeon’s College and University College London (FREE)
- Fri 12th 7.30pm FESTIVAL FINALE: Balmoral Ballroom - Queen’s Hotel, Church Road SE19 (FREE)
Including - MUSIC :THE EFFRAS Folk Group, FILMS: TRIBUTE TRUST

Events may be subject to change
080 2778 1865

*“Where Lewisham and Lambeth walk with Croydon
And Southwark greets with Bromley on Parade,
The palace you created still inspires us
And now a corner’s finally remade !”*
John Greatrex

